

Feature

Above: Colonel Burt Field, 8th Fighter Wing commander, and Senior Airman Yesenia Aleman, 8th Operations Support Squadron wing scheduler, show off their skills while dancing to the "Puerto Rico," a tropical version of the Meringue from Puerto Rico. Right: Second Lt. Marcos DelOrbe, 8th Communications Squadron officer-in-charge of maintenance, and 1st Lt. Claudia Justus, 8th Logistics Support Squadron deputy commander, partner up for "La Pollera Colora," a cumbia from Colombia, during festivities of Latin Night at the Loring Club Sept. 29.

Photos by Senior Airman Lanie McNeal

Latin Night at the Loring Club

Left: Technical Sgt. Phillip Johnson, 8th Transportation NCO in-charge of passenger service, and Aleman demonstrate "Jarabe Tapatio," a typical folkloric dance from Jalisco, Mexico. Above: Airman Sheyla Villegas, 8th Supply Squadron aircraft parts and storage technician, and DelOrbe join the crowd in casual dancing after the performances. The Latin Night banquet was one of the many events sponsored by the Los Lobos Latinos to celebrate Hispanic Heritage month.